ST. PAUL LUTHERAN MISSION STATEMENT:

*Empowered by the Holy Spirit to make Christ known;
As we love one another, serve our neighbor, and grow in our Faith through studying God's Word and Worshiping God.*

Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

Romans 8:1

On July 4th we celebrate our Nation's Anniversary. 245 years ago, the Declaration of Independence was signed, and we began celebrating and living in the freedom we have enjoyed as a nation.

Independence for our country meant that it was no longer under the domination of another country and therefore free to chart its own course among the nations of the world. Freedom does not mean the end of struggle – a war was started and fought from the beginning. For the founders of our nation, the gigantic effort to bring this new nation forth had just begun with the Declaration of Independence.

As our nation grew more powerful among the nations of the world, there also grew the conviction that we needed to assume responsibility for leadership in the struggle for freedom by other peoples of the world. This has meant involvement with many nations of the world.

Freedom does not mean that I as an individual can do whatever I want with no responsibilities or consequences. There is no freedom for all without responsibility. If one person's freedom is trampling on another person or harms innocent people, then that is not freedom. Freedom does not necessarily make life easier; but it provides the framework for us to say this is the way we are going to carry out our responsibility as we see it.

Living in a free land, we do well to think of our personal freedoms in the context of the whole. As life has gotten more complicated, we may have a growing feeling that we are losing some of our freedoms. There is much good and much bad in our nation. However, looking at our nation and comparing it with the other countries of the world, we can still be thankful in the freedoms we still have in our personal lives. Let us rejoice and take full advantage of such freedoms as the freedom of worship, freedom of speech, freedom of press, etc.

However, let us always remember that these freedoms are to be exercised with responsibility, and are to be used constructively and not destructively in relation to our fellow citizens.

Your Pastor,
Tim W Muehlbrad

To St. Paul Lutheran,

It has been an amazing start to not only the summer, but to our church opening back up. In case you did not know, our youth group has completed three missional events, one of them impacted a community beyond DeWitt County. Here is what they were: we have worked with YAM putting food boxes together; we assembled 125 hygiene kits for an organization that helps the homeless of Victoria, TX; we then went into downtown Yorktown to wash windows for most of the small businesses. By the time you get this letter, we would have already gone back downtown to sweep the sidewalks along with passing out water and candy.

If you would like to help out in any capacity, or, if your children are old enough and you want them to help out, please contact me.

July 7th - YAM

July 9th - Sidewalk sweep + hand out candy/water

July 12th - 16th VBS

We have three more events in which I would love for you to join us. Also do not forget for $25/person we will be going back to Splashway Water Park on Saturday August 7th.

I do not have much to write to you this month. God bless and I will see you Sunday.

Peace,
Nicholas Requejo
Family & Youth Director

We need friends. Friends guide us, care for us, confront us in love, console us in times of pain. Although we speak of “making friends,” friends cannot be made. Friends are free gifts from God. But God gives us the friends we need when we need them if we fully trust in God’s love.

Friends cannot replace God. They have limitations and weaknesses like we have.

Their love is never faultless, never complete. But in their limitations they can be signposts on our journey towards the unlimited and unconditional love of God. Let’s enjoy the friends whom God has sent on our way.

As it does this year, July 4 fell on Sunday in 1937. While Pastor Eldred Johnston led worship that morning in Paulding, Ohio, local kids set off firecrackers nearby (restrictions were rare back then). Realizing he needed to act, the pastor slipped outside during a hymn and found the revelers.

But instead of scolding or shouting, Johnston stayed calm. "I used to enjoy shooting fireworks too," he said, adding that he knew it was a fun way to celebrate. "But many in this town are gathered in worship, and the noise is very distracting. All I'm asking is that you wait until church services are over — about noon — and then shoot firecrackers all you want." The pastor smiled at each youth and returned to church.

Recounting that experience in Liberty magazine, Johnston said he half-expected to hear defiant explosions. Instead, the kids waited respectfully until worship was over. When conflicts loom, may we heed that example — and this advice from Proverbs: "A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger" (15:1, NIV).

PROVERBS 15:1, NIV

A thank you letter from the Oromo Church in Houston, Tx.

Letter to Texas Congregations

We at the Oromo Evangelical Church wish to thank all of you who have so generously and freely given us encouragement, moral support, physical support, prayers and financial for the past ten (10) years which has allowed us to grow tenfold since we began our affiliation with the North American Lutheran church. We are now, thanks to your efforts, in a new chapter of our development as a church devoted to the worship of Jesus Christ.

We have just purchased a 1.88 acre tract of land to build our first church building by the grace of God. We are so thankful for all that you have contributed so we can accomplish our goal of going forth to make disciples of Christ to all people. As we enter in the journey to increase our membership, outreach, and presence as a church committed to Jesus, we acknowledge that without your support we could have never reached the point of development we have reached at this juncture. We have been blessed with our relationship with you and treasure it always. Because of your commitment to discipleship, we were able to raise $260,000.00 of the $360,000.00 required to purchase the property located in Missouri City, Texas, a suburb of Houston, Texas.

We now are faced with new challenges as we must pay the remaining amount of 140,000.00 due within 2 years from the date of purchase at 6% interest on a ten amortization schedule on a monthly basis plus attempting to build a structure for worship purposes. We feel confident that with god's grace we can succeed with this very ambitious program committed to the discipleship for the sake of Jesus Christ. Our motto is "not finished, just begun in 2021".

Again, thank you.

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Kamiso Boru
