ST. PAUL LUTHERAN MISSION STATEMENT:

Empowered by the Holy Spirit to make Christ known; As we love one another, serve our neighbor, and grow in our Faith through studying God's Word and Worshiping God.

As we celebrate our 150th anniversary this year, I have been thinking about the rich history that influenced those who were founding members of this congregation. What shaped their faith that they identified as Lutheran?

There are only few people that it can be said with absolute certainty that they changed the course of history. Jesus was one; so was Karl Marx. Still another was Martin Luther.

Near midnight on November 3, 1583, Martin Luther was born in candlelight. The next morning, his father Hans Luder, took him to St. Petri Church to be baptized. Being St. Martin's Day, he was named Martin. Luder was later respelled to Luther.

Martin Luther was many things to the sixteenth century Christian church: Reformer, pastor, teacher, orator, translator, theologian, musician, university professor, and family man. Except for Jesus, more books have been written about him than any other person in the history of the world.

Luther was a complex personality and often a person of contradictions. People who read him can find in him a great hero or a mad man depending on their purpose, but no one can dispute that he was a man of God. His relationship with God took first priority in all that he did.

You have heard about many of the great things he did such as his emphasis on Salvation by Grace through faith; the restoration of the use of the Bible for all believers; and the universal priesthood of all believers. However, I would like to share with you a few other tidbits of information about him, many of which are not that important but shed some light on the man.

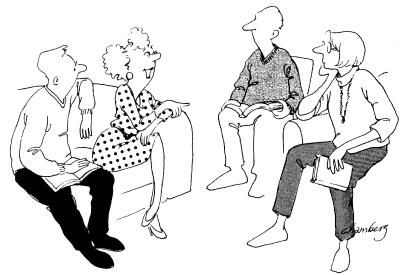

- Without the use of electricity for light, word processor, typewriter or even a ball point pen, he translated the Greek New Testament into the German in only 11 weeks.

- In his translation of the bible, he wanted it not to be merely a reading Bible but a speaking Bible, so he would question many people of the many different dialects, "how would you say this phrase?" As a result, Luther formed the modern German language.
- Up until Luther there was no uniform order of the Books in the Bible. Earlier translators placed them in whatever order that suited them. Luther worked up the order of books as we now have them. Tyndale who translated the Bible into the English language, met with Luther, was influenced by him, and followed the same order of books. The King James Version followed suit. So, everyone who memorizes the books of the Bible is following Luther's order.
- Luther wrote 37 hymns and composed at least 12 tunes for his hymns.
- Published works that he wrote, ranging from pamphlets to books, number 420. We don't know how many letters he wrote, but there are still 3000 in existence -- a lot of writing with a goose feather quill. Luther never took any royalties for his writings or his music, but his publishers became wealthy.
- Having studied music theory as a child, not only did he compose, but he loved to sing with his high tenor voice and enjoyed playing the flute and the lute (the forerunner of the modern-day guitar).
- The congregation did not sing in worship service for 1000 years, until Luther reintroduced it.
- In writing music, he originated the concept of "one syllable, one note", which made it easier for congregational members to sing, and which we take for granted today.
- Though echoed before, Luther was the proponent of the modern view of religious liberty, insisting that the human conscience cannot be coerced.
- Luther was the forerunner of the Public School System. Before, it was all under the authority of the church. He stressed it to be a state responsibility.

He changed the view of the Christian marriage. For centuries church manuals on marriage emphasized that marriage was a lessor estate, while celibacy and virginity was the higher estate. Marital sexual relations between husband and wife was often considered a venial (lessor) sin because it was a concession to the weakness of the flesh. Luther's teaching changed the emphasis of the times to the fact that sexual desire is God's good gift, and marriage is living a life for God.

So many more interesting comments could be made, but let's remember that our lives today are still strongly affected by the life of Luther.

Your Pastor, Tim W Muehlbrad

Samaritan's Purse is a Christian international relief organization, responding to disasters in America and around the world.

You may know about their help in Victoria, clearing out damaged houses after the last hurricane.

Now Samaritan's Purse delivers 75 truckloads of food into Ukraine each week and works with 2,000 partner churches to deliver the food to those in need. Winter in Ukraine is bitterly cold; war damage to bombed-out windows and holes ripped in roofs make it worse. Samaritan's Purse is providing clear plastic to seal windows and heavy-duty tarps to patch roofs.

They will send things like blankets and warm hats plus solar-powered lights for the long, dark nights. The churches have asked for wood-burning stoves to heat the damaged homes of 5000 families. One stove costs $200. It is hard to imagine a hard winter without a stove in a damaged home without power or running water as they deal with shortages of food, fears for their safety, and endless grief.

If you would like to help with this large project, please send your gift to : Samaritan's Purse International Relief, P.O. Box 3000, Boone, NC 28607. You may also donate by calling 1-800-665-2843 or use samaritanspurse.org to donate or find out about this Christian-based organization. If I can answer any questions, I will be happy to do so. #### ALL SAINTS SUNDAY IS NOVEMBER 6, 2022.

We remember the children of God who have left their earthly journey for their heavenly home this past year. We take this time to remember the blessings God has given us through each of them.

The SAINT'S of St. Paul who are now among the Saints Triumphant are:

David Lassmann, Roland Riedesel, Morris Kerlick, Lola Teschendorf, JoAn Young, David Metting, Lorene Schley, Michael Janssen, Melvin Sinast, Amy Lynch, Joyce

Hoefling, Mary Ann Pfeifer, Stanley Johnson, C.B. Suggs, Leroy Landgrebe, and Eva Gohmert

Finally, we celebrate All Saint's Sunday because we, too, are counted as saints through the righteousness of Christ. Through the merits of His sacrifice and the promise of His resurrection, we shall one day also stand with all the saints in life!
